“Love your enemy and do good.” What would our world be like if we really did live this directive? You can make a difference! (Luke 6:127-38)

For our global community that people will strive to build bridges of love and understanding, we pray.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY FEBRUARY 27

Sir 27:4-7 1Cor 15:54-58 Lk 6:39-45

FEBRUARY 20, 2022

7th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Jesus tells us today, “For if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same. If you lend money to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, and get back the same amount. But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend expecting nothing back; then your reward will be great and you will be children of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.” Jesus is telling us today not to have the attitude, “If you scratch my back, I will scratch yours.” Jesus is expecting us to love those who will not love us back. He wants us to give to others and not expect repayment from those who receive from us. For many people in politics and business, this is not a good venture. Many times, our decision making with others deals with, “How are they going to help me in return.” Jesus is telling us to give and not count the cost. Our reward will be in the next life. Our reward will depend on Christ. Christ is giving up the reward. He is making the decision on how we are compensated and taken care of. Many times, we want things in black and white. We want to know what is coming to us. Having no idea if I will be compensated in this life does not set well with some. It all boils down to trusting in Jesus. Do we trust him and his ability to take care of us when we are trying to take care of others at the same time? Do we want to be in control of our rewards and compensation? Jesus, I trust in you. God bless you all. Fr. Tony
