From the Desk of
Fr. Tony

Today we celebrate the solemnity of the most holy body and blood of Christ. We give thanks for the eucharist in our lives. It is the center and pinnacle of our Christian faith. The time we spend at mass and eucharistic adoration enlivens and strengthens our faith and souls. Sometimes in the evening I go over to church to spend one on one time with Jesus in the tabernacle. I can tell that someone else is in church besides me and that other is Jesus. It is like Jesus renews us each time we come into contact with him. The world keeps wanting more and more from us and we can't believe that all we give is never enough for the world.

Our contact with Jesus in the eucharist brings us healing. We don't have to keep up with the world because that is impossible. We just give our troubles, our self, our sins, our successes to the king of kings. In the gospel we see, "Jesus spoke to the crowds about the kingdom of God, and he healed those who needed to be cured." We all need to know about the kingdom of God. We bring that kingdom to the earth by being a listening, faithful, and repentant follower of Christ. We proclaim the word of God to everyone in this world. We are not afraid of what people think of us. Because we know if God is for us who can be against us. Jesus heals and sanctifies us each time we partake of his body and blood. To sanctify means to make holy.

Jesus feeds the five thousand people today with bread and fish. Jesus fed more than five thousand because the five thousand was just men not counting the women and children. Jesus is always feeding his people. Not just with natural food but with his body and blood. Jesus takes care of our bodies and souls. Why would we ever try to do without him? Some of us, including me, think that we can pave our own way in life but we become disappointed and we realize that we need to stay close to the good shepherd.

I want to thank all of you. You have been so good to me over the years. That going away party two weeks ago was a testament to your generosity and kindness. I will continually pray for you all throughout my life. God put me in the right place back in 2009. I can look back now and see how I needed the people of Glandorf. I cannot thank you enough. God bless you all. Fr. Tony
