READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY JUNE 27th Wis 1:13-15, 2:23-24 2Cor 8:7, 9:13-15 Mk 5:21-43

From the Desk of
Fr. Tony

JUNE 20, 2021
12th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Father's Day

The apostles are asking Jesus this question today, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Quiet! Be still!” The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, “Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?”

The sea is turbulent and the apostles are afraid the boat is going to sink. Jesus is sleeping and is awakened by the apostles and not the turbulent sea. We may ask Jesus the same question, Jesus do you not care that I am perishing?” Jesus is so calm and collected but you and I can get nervous at times. The one thing we can learn from today's gospel is that we have to have faith in Jesus. Our lives may be in chaos but Christ is not going to let us perish. Jesus wants us to be confident in him and his ability to work.

If Christ can control mother nature in today's gospel, then he also can control the difficulties in our world. Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith? Things can look ugly all around us but Christ can change things in a second. Do you believe this?

Dear Dads, thanks for providing for our families and thanks for being you. The way that God made you. You are so needed in families it takes husband & wife to nurture a family. Dads remember that you are the priest of the domestic church, the home. You are called to lead your family in prayer. This obligation was given to you on your marriage day. Happy Father's Day! God bless you all. Fr. Tony FERVORINO - Jesus says "Do not be afraid" three times and reminds us "all concealed secrets will be revealed." Do not be afraid to acknowledge problems in your family. If they remain "hidden in darkness" they will "destroy body and soul." Healing, understanding and hope are found only "in the light" of openness. "Do not be afraid."
