To be God’s servant, we must follow Jesus. Do you desire to see where Jesus lives? Serve the poor and marginalized. (John 12:20-33)

For all Church ministers, that they may follow Jesus’ way of service, we pray.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY, MARCH 28 Mk 11:1-10 Is 50:4-7/Phil 2:6-11 Mk 14:1-15

SUNDAY, MARCH 21

5th Sunday of Lent

From the Desk of Fr. Tony

Jesus tells us today, “Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be. The Father will honor whoever serves me.” It is very evident that Jesus is inviting us to follow him and serve him and others.

God does not want us to hold onto our lives but give them away for the building of the kingdom.

Love wasn’t put in your heart to stay, love isn’t love until you give it away. We have to be that grain of wheat that dies in order to bear fruit for Christ. God will honor whoever serves Jesus. What more do we want? Unless we want the things of this world. If you love your life too much in the world, you will lose it. You will lose track of your Christian heritage. You will be selfish and inconsiderate of others. So what do you want until you die? Do you want life and life to the fullest with Christ or do you want selfishness and death even while you live on earth? God gives you freedom. You will get what you want. But Jesus has the final say and he will judge you on your actions or lack of actions at the end of your life. You are being tested by God. God tests those he loves. You are not living in a dream. Your life matters now. Make the most of it for Christ. God bless you all. Fr. Tony
