OUR MISSION

Founded by Jesus Christ, St. John the Baptist Catholic Church is the heart of Glandorf. At the heart of our faith are the Sacraments which St. John's is here to evangelize, catechize, and celebrate all of God's people to set their hearts on fire in passionate love of God and neighbor.

OUR VISION

We enable spiritual formation and growth, support discipleship, provide outreach through community service, and build relationships, so we can build the Kingdom of God in Glandorf and around the world. Driven by the Gospel of Jesus Christ; we want to educate and promote respect for the dignity of life, encourage charity and justice, and embody the moral values of the church. Our mission is guided by Scripture and Traditions of our Catholic Faith and aligned with the mission of the Diocese of Toledo to make Holy Disciples, Holy Families, and Holy Vocations.

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER MATT

When I think of a king, I think of him dressed in a fine robe, made from the best materials. I think of a king wearing crown made out precious metal perhaps gold and silver with diamonds and gems embedded in the crown to help the crown standout. I picture the king seated on a thrown made out either stone or wood made from finest materials and with much detail craved into it the finest piece of furniture you laid your eyes on. I picture the king having a scepter in his hand. And lastly when I think of a king, I think of him having a high ego, selfish all about how his subjects can best serve him. I think of a king doing all that he can to stay in power. Most of what influences my understanding of kings is what I have seen in Disney Movies. Is this what you think of when you think of a king?

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. And as celebrate Jesus Christ the King of Universe this image of king is a little different than what you expect from your typical king. Let me draw your attention to Jesus Christ King of the Universe at the crucifixion scene. Jesus Christ the King does not wear crown made of gold and silver, but he is crowned with the crown of thorns. Jesus Christ the King does not sit upon a thrown made of the finest piece of furniture, but the thrown Jesus is sitting on is the thrown of the cross. Jesus Christ the King is not dressed in the finest garments, but he is not clothed but fully exposed for us to see him. Jesus Christ the King does not have a scepter in his hand, but nails driven through his hands and feet. I present to you Jessus Christ, King of the Universe. A little different image of king then presented above. But then again Jesus Christ, King of the Universe is not your typical king.

As we celebrate Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, our scriptures today invite to see Jesus as king through the lens of a shepherd caring for the sheep of the flock. And not just any shepherd but a shepherd who cares for and has preference for the weak sheep of the flock. "The lost I will seek out, the strayed I will bring back, the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy" (Ezekiel 34:15-16). Most shepherds would try to hide the weak sheep of the flock and draw attention to the strong ones. Attention in our scriptures is given to the weak. Jesus speaks of the care for weak of his flock, almost to the point where it can make me feel slightly uncomfortable. Jesus speaks of separating sheep from goats. The sheep get rewarded for caring for the least and the goats get punished for not caring for the least. Jesus explains as you do for the least you do it for me. As I hear these words, I often ask myself who needs my help that I either ignore or do not see? But more importantly do I see Jesus Christ, King of the Universe in the people that need my help? When I see Jesus, it is hard not to help.

Today we begin Thanksgiving Week, and we are soon to begin a season where we will given opportunities to perform acts of charity for people in need of our help. Do you see Jesus Christ, King of the Universe in the people you are called to share charity with?

Four Last Things: Death, Judgement, Heaven and Hell

Today's readings continue the discussion from last week in which God asked us what have we done with our gifts and talents for His Kingdom. In today's readings, God speaks about how our love for Him will be lived out by loving others. When we love others – God responds to us "'Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world," and "the righteous [will go on] to eternal life." (Mt 25:34, 46) He is referring to Heaven, However, when we do not love He says, "And these will go off to eternal punishment." (Mt 25:46) Here, He is referring to Hell. Our love, or lack thereof, have eternal consequences. Eternity awaits every one of us. In November, the Church reminds us of the four "Last Things": Death, Judgment, Heaven, and Hell. As Catholics, we believe in life everlasting; we profess that every time we pray the Creed. We all long for Heaven, for that should be our final destination: We are created for Heaven. God wants us in Heaven. But there are a few things that have to happen first.

Death: The Catechism tells us that in death, God calls us to Himself (#1011) and that because of Christ, death has a positive meaning (#1010). When we refer to "death" as one of the Four Last Things, we are talking about bodily death, which is merely the separation of our soul from our bodies. Our bodies will die, but our souls will continue to live. (For more, see: CCC #1008, 1018; Romans 5:12, 1 Corinthians 15:26).

Judgment: The Catechism of the Catholic Church also says that at the moment of death, all will receive their particular (or individual) judgment (#1021, 1051). The time for choosing God or evil is done: "Each man receives his eternal retribution in his immortal soul at the very moment of his death... either entrance into the blessedness of heaven – through a purification or immediately, – or immediate and everlasting damnation." (CCC #1022) (For more, see: 2 Corinthians 5:10, CCC #1038-1040, CCC 1042-1047)

A note about Purgatory, though it is not one of the Four Last Things (because after the universal judgment, Purgatory will no longer exist). If we die in God's grace and friendship but still have the need to be purified, we will go into a "place" of purification. Those who are in Purgatory are on their way to Heaven. Purgatory is not a place where the decision to go to Heaven or Hell is made. We also do not believe that anyone will stay in Purgatory for eternity. (For more, see: CCC #1030-32)

Hell: Hell is what we refer to when we speak of "eternal death". It is not a physical place but a state. If we die in a state of mortal sin – that is, in a state that is not in God's grace and friendship – we cannot be united to God if we don't freely choose to love Him (CCC #1033, 1057). "The chief punishment of hell is eternal separation from God, in whom alone man can possess the life and happiness for which he was created and for which he longs." (CCC #1035) The Church does not teach that "God banishes people to Hell", rather that people willfully choose Hell. The Church can also not say for certain that anyone is in Hell, nor, in the same way, can we say for certain that no one is in Hell.

Heaven: We were all made for Heaven, and therefore, this is where we should strive to go. Heaven is a place where "Those who die in God's grace and friendship and are perfectly purified live forever with Christ. They are like God for ever, for they 'see him as he is,' face to face." (CCC #1023) You can go straight to Heaven or get there via Purgatory.

"At the end of time, the Kingdom of God will come in its fullness. Then the just will reign with Christ forever, glorified in body and soul, and the material universe itself will be transformed. God will then be 'all in all' (1 Corinthians 15:28), in eternal life." (CCC #1060)

It's not a bad idea to reflect on the Last Things and to remember our death. Thinking of these things is part of thinking and hoping to be with God eternally one day since that is where we belong, and thinking about it will help us get there.

VOCATION TESTIMONIES

Why did I become a deacon? So many people have asked me that in the last 15 years so my one simple answer is this, "I want to get to heaven and I want to help as many people to get there also. I was always interested in the Catholic faith and while I was in the 7th and 8th grade, I was in contact with Divine Word Seminary in Perrysburg Ohio to possibly attend there in the priestly formation. Working on a farm postponed that desire and after high school, I wanted to do my duty to my country so I joined the Air National Guard in Toledo Ohio. I worked in material facilities and my friend Herm Lammers worked as an assistant chaplain. He gave me this bible to read, called "The Way" and I read it slowly in 4 years then I started over again and reread it. In 1985, my wife Elaine went to a "Life in the Spirit" charismatic program here in Glandorf St. John's basement. I then attended it in 1986 and decided to turn my life over to Jesus and include Him in all that I did. When I made that decision, things started to work out for me and I was able to witness many miracles in my life that I probable would have written off as coincidence. As the year of 2000 approached, the Catholic Church had this program called Renew 2000 so many bible studies were going on and we had several here in Glandorf. I led one group for years and then when 2000 came around, I joined a diocesan program with the first year being Catholic identity and the next 3 years being a Lay Ministry program. When I graduated in 2004, Fr. Harry Brown wrote me this letter and asked that I consider the deaconate program and I have that letter still in my bible today. After the letter, I pursued the deaconate, and the diocese and all of the USCCB organization had the diaconate program on hold as they revised it and added more content. It started up in 2007 and I was one of 12 able get in after interviews of over 36 candidates. We had 1 year of discernment and 3 years of classroom work, along with one weekend a month at a retreat center in Fremont. In 2011, I was ordained, along with 8 other deacons by Bishop Leonard Blair. Over the past 15 plus years, I was able to baptize over 300 babies and small children, officiate at several weddings, did many vigil and committal services, holy hours and benedictions, and conducted communion services in the absence of a priest. People have asked me if today, I would make that same decision to become a deacon and I would say 95% sure, I would want to help serve the Church in that capacity. From the people in my Renew 2000 bible group, to many parishioners, along with Fr. Harry, have encouraged me along the way. I am not in any way, worthy enough to serve God in the deacon capacity but God does not call the gifted but gifts the called so I pray that He is always there to guide me and through the Holy Spirit, I can be a positive influence on those around me. If you have any desire to serve God and the Church in any capacity, please pray about it in Holy Hour and allow the Holy Spirit to guide you in all ways. God bless all.Dcn. Don

I grew up on our family farm in Cuba, Ohio. I was born the third child of seven of Hubert and Mary Verhoff. My Grandpa Verhoff lived with us because my Grandma Verhoff died when my dad was a young boy. I was raised with a strong Catholic faith, attending mass through the week in addition to Sunday mass. The family worked together to care for the family farm as well as prayed together on a daily basis. We were taught at a young age to work for the church. I remember scrubbing and waxing the aisle of St. Isadore Catholic Church on my hands and knees. We kept the altar cloths and communion cloths ironed. We would decorate altars with the flowers that my mom and my Grandma Vennekotter would grow in their flower gardens. When the church needed musicians, we were signed up for lessons. From a teen until I married, I played organ for masses. After marriage, raising our nine children became my full-time vocation but I still volunteered at church by leading the rosary on First Saturdays of the month as well as being a Eucharistic Minister. After the kids had grown, I brought communion to the Nursing Homes and the shut-ins within our parish. My husband and I were both Precious Blood Companions. Prayer was always an important part of my life. When we got married, we prayed together as a couple. As our family grew, we prayed as a family: morning prayers, meal prayers and a nightly rosary. We attended mass as a family often. I have always loved the mass and often attended it daily. Now in my older years, even though I can't always attend in person, I still watch the mass daily online. God blessed my husband and I with a wonderful family and I am thankful. Each child, in their own vocations serve others. I have been blessed with 100 years. In the good times and the challenges, God has always provided.

Looking for Help

Share your talents & gifts by assisting engaged couples prepare for their wedding!

St. John's is looking for people to help in marriage ministry in two ways:

1) Become a Wedding Rehearsal Coordinator

- A few Fridays throughout the year you would walk the engaged couple and their wedding party through the wedding ceremony process
- You schedule the dates that work best for you
- Instructions and details are given to you for each rehearsal ahead of time

2) Become a Mentor Couple

- A few times throughout the year a couple will be assigned to you and your spouse. You will contact the couple to set up a time to meet them, preferably in your home, to go over the results of a pre-marriage inventory questionnaire they have already completed. Afterwards, you and your spouse complete a quick summary page and mail it back to St. John's. (Only one meeting per engaged couple.)

If you would like to share your talents to one or both of these ministries, or for more information, please call the rectory today!

Prayer from Center of Hope

Adorers of the Blood of Christ

May God bless you
With discomfort
At easy answers,
Half truths,
And superficial relationships,
So that you may live well,
Deep within your heart.

May God bless you
With anger at
Injustice, oppression,
And exploitation of people
So that you will work
For justice, equity and peace!

And my God bless you
With the foolishness to think
That you can make a difference
In the world,
So that you will do the things
Which others tell you
Cannot be done!

- Complete five hours of service to St. John the Baptist Parish during the year.

GRADE SCHOOL STUDENTS

To be eligible to participate in CYO sports, grade school students must:

- Regularly attend Grade School Religious Education (CCD) classes.

Attend a Saturday evening or Sunday Catholic Mass.

CLASS ATTENDANCE FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

- Attendance at all Religious Education (CCD) classes will be monitored and reviewed.
- After three missed classes, each additional absence will result in the player sitting out one game for each additional class missed.
- If a student is ill and unable to attend class, parents should notify the appropriate Religious Education instructor or coordinator before class whenever possible.
- Attendance will reset at the end of each team's season for the respective sport.

We appreciate the cooperation of our players and families as we uphold these expectations for the spiritual and communal good of our youth and parish.

In the Gospel it says that Jesus will come form the East. The mass will be in Latin and English with Gregorian Chant. Feast of Christ the King
November 22nd, 2026

Whatever you do to others...

Jesus is a fair king. In today's Gospel reading, He tells us how He will judge people at the end of time. Those who were good to God will be saved, and those who were not good to Him will be condemned. Whoever is good to others is good to God, and whoever is unkind to others is unkind to God.

Our Lord cares so much about His people that He will judge us according to how we treat each other. Jesus is the Good Shepherd and the King, and He cares about every one of us specially. Imagine a king who came to see every one of his subjects to make sure that they were doing okay. Well, Jesus does more than that- He died for us on the cross! He looks after us all the time, and He says that anyone who is unkind to us will be judged as being unkind to Him.

Christ the King is the just judge. How do you think you will be judged when you die, or at the end of time? Are you kind to others? Do you ever think about how you would treat Jesus if He were here? Do you treat other people the way you would treat Jesus?

Answers to Back page: I myself will please them.

Saint Catherine of Alexandria

WHAT WE KNOW ABOUT SAINT CATHERINE OF ALEXANDRIA HAS BEEN PASSED DOWN THROUGH MANY STORIES, SO IT MAY BE A BIT DIFFERENT THAN WHAT REALLY HAPPENED. STILL, SHE IS A GOOD EXAMPLE TO US OF STANDING UP FOR THE TRUTH IN THE FACE OF DANGER. WE SHOULD ALL LEARN TO DEFEND THE TRUTH.
