SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 8
32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

As followers of Christ we are called disciples of Christ. The word disciples comes from the word discipline. The discipline of prayer is something that I find hard to deal with. I'm sure I know that I have mass each day. That is not hard to be present for because I am motivated by the fact that many people are waiting in church for me to start mass. But to pray on my own is another story. During the ordination rite for deacons, the seminarian or married man makes a promise to pray the breviary each day. The breviary is made up of the old testament, new testament, and prayers. Another difficulty I have is praying the rosary. I know I made these promises in front of the Auxiliary Bishop Carl Modell of the Cincinnati Archdiocese but to keep promises one has to have self-discipline.

I think of all the work that is in front of me each day and I say, "God will understand if I skip my breviary today." After all my work is a prayer. But I do know this, there will never be enough time during the day to pray. I will always have reasons not to pray. In the gospel today, Jesus speaks about the parable of the ten virgins. Five were foolish and five were wise. The five foolish virgins did not have any oil in their lamps and the five wise virgins did have oil in their lamps. The wise virgins were prepared and they went into the wedding feast with the bridegroom. The foolish ones were not prepared. The bride groom represents Jesus in his second coming. I believe the oil represents our willingness to spend time with Christ and our willingness to serve Christ by being at the beckon call of others.

This is what motivates me to pray when no one is around me. I have an obligation to know Christ. If I am going to preach about Jesus each day then I better come to know his heart. How do I come to know Christ and his heart? By reading from scripture. When Jesus comes again I want to have oil in my lamp. That means that I burn oil in my lamp and sit down and read scripture. Not only at mass but during the day. Then when Christ gives me his marching orders through prayer and scripture, I can then go serve God's people in the way they deserve to be served. I have to spend this life knowing Christ. Listen to what Christ said in the last part of today's gospel. The bride groom and the guests are in the banquet hall for the wedding feast and the five foolish virgins approach the bride groom, these five foolish virgins are outside the banquet hall or heaven and they say, "Lord, Lord open the door for us," Jesus says to the five foolish virgins who did not have oil in their lamps, "Amen, I say to you, I do not know you." You did not spend time with me on earth. You were too busy in carrying out your own little agenda each day. You did not ask me what I wanted you to do each day. You had your own life planned out which involved getting your name in the paper and looking good in front of others. You were not willing to serve behind the scenes. Believe me brothers and sisters Jesus is coming. "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." God bless you all. Fr. Tony

WEDDINGS: The Toledo Diocese requests all dates be set at the rectory at least 6 months in advance. Pre-Marriage Class required. Parties who recently joined our parish who do not live within our parish boundaries, or who do not belong to a family already registered in the parish; need to be aware that we cannot schedule a wedding date until six months after the time of registration. The normal six-month preparation period would apply from that point. Normally only parishioners and those related to our parishioners marry here. Any other person needs prior permission of his/her pastor.

MARRIAGE PREPARATION CLASS The Diocese of Toledo has a marriage preparation class, entitled "A Joy-Filled Marriage." This is a mandatory, two-day class. St. John's class will be November 7 & 8, 2020.
