Do you know the power of prayer within a group? Join with others to pray for an increase of vocations to ordained ministry and the consecrated life. (Matthew 18:15-20)

For Church groups and organizations, may they gather in the name of Jesus and receive the power to carry on his mission, we pray.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY, September 13 Sir 27:30-28:7 Rom 14:7-9 Mt 18:21-35

From the Desk of Fr. Tony

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the readings today it is very evident that God wants us to keep each other away from sin and to reconcile with one another. We hear in the first reading, "But if you warn the wicked, trying to turn him from his way, and he refuses to turn from his way, he shall die for his guilt, but you shall save yourself." God uses us as instruments to keep people on the right path. I know we may think that we are getting into people's business but it is our responsibility as Christians to keep people on God's path.

In the gospel we hear, "Jesus said to his disciples: If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother." The Lord wants us to meet face to face with those we are at odds with. Fr. Mark Hoying C.P.P.S. talks about this when he was in New Zealand for five years. In New Zealand, people do not quickly sue each other. When two people are at odds with each other, the two meet together in a tent. They do not leave that tent until they have settled the matter. If we are Christian adults, we should be able to be respectful and mature enough to deal with one another. God wants us to do this. These are his wishes. Let us not disappoint him. God bless you all. Fr. Tony

In October, we will fast for the intention of holy families. In November, we will give alms for the intention of holy vocations.
