2 FROM THE DESK OF DEACON DON

www.stjohnglandorf.org

"Alleluia! Sing to Jesus! His the scepter, His the throne; Alleluia! His the triumph, His the victory alone. Hark! The songs of peaceful Zion Thunder like a mighty flood. Jesus, out of every nation, has redeemed us by his blood." This song reminds me of the Easter season and what Jesus has done for us. His Resurrection fills all Christian hearts with joy and also all the souls who were in Hades were rejoicing in Jesus' triumph. The readings today all focus on Jesus after He rose from the dead. In the Gospel reading we see Jesus appearing to the disciples who were in a locked room for fear of the Jews. He tells them "Peace be with you" and He shows them His hands and His side bearing the marks of the nails; and the piercing of the sword. The disciples rejoiced that they were worthy to be first hand witnesses. Jesus gives them a glimpse of the priesthood of which will be forthcoming by telling them that "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Thomas, who wasn't there the first time, didn't believe the other disciples when they said they saw Jesus. A week later, Jesus appears again and Thomas was there this time. Jesus tells him, "Do not be unbelieving but believe." Thomas responds with "My Lord and My God." These are words that we can use when Fr. Matt holds up the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharistic Liturgy. We say to ourselves, "This is truly the Body of Christ. My Lord and My God." And "This is truly the Blood of Christ. My Lord and my God." Every Sunday and for those that can come during the week, we have been blessed to experience this eucharistic miracle. In the first reading we see the followers of Christ listening to the teachings of the Apostles, coming together in a communal life, praying and breaking bread together. And we continue this highest form of worship when we attend mass. And we believe this because of our faith. Our faith is more precious than gold, St. Peter tells us in the 2nd reading. And it is through the Resurrection of Jesus that gives us this faith. It gives us hope that God has prepared a place in heaven for those that love Him. I hope and pray that your easter season through Pentecost and thereafter is one that draws you closer to Christ and His redeeming Grace. God bless you and "Peace be with you." Deacon Don TMIY "THE LIGHT OF MEN" - Evidence for the Resurrection (Sat. 4/22, Wed. 4/19) (session 26)

Speaker: Dr. Peter Kreeft, The Good News is the hope of the Resurrection.
 Christianity is full of and dependent on miracles. Science does not and cannot disprove Catholicism. Death is a consequence of sin. If Jesus did not resurrect, then we believe in a dead man who cannot save us. We have more evidence that Jesus is a real person than any other historical figure.. Scripture: Matthew 28:1-10, John 20:1-10 Religious: The Rosary

6 DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY, April 16, 2023

Today at St. John's, there will be following events . . .

- ◆ 8:00am Mass
- ◆ 10:30am Mass
- ◆ 1:30pm - 3:00pm Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament
- ◆ 1:45pm - 2:45pm Confessions (Father Matt)
- ◆ 3:00pm Divine Mercy Chaplet, Benediction and Veneration of the Image

St. Maria Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938), who Pope John Paul II called the Secretary and Apostle of Divine Mercy, provides through her writings the impetus to the modern Divine Mercy message and devotion. Her witness reminds our hurting, modern world of the heart of Sacred Scripture: the good news of God's mercy for sinners.

Concerning the Feast of Mercy Jesus said:

Whoever approaches the Fountain of Life on this day will be granted complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. (Diary 300)

I want the image solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it. (Diary 341)

This Feast emerged from the very depths of My mercy, and it is confirmed in the vast depths of my tender mercies. (Diary 420)

*On one occasion, I heard these words: My daughter, tell the whole world about My Inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. * [our emphasis] On that day all the divine floodgates through which grace flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come forth from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy. (Diary 699)*

Yes, the first Sunday after Easter is the Feast of Mercy, but there must also be deeds of mercy, which are to arise out of love for Me. You are to show mercy to our neighbors always and everywhere. You must not shrink from this or try to absolve yourself from it. (Diary 742)

I want to grant complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My mercy. (Diary 1109)

As you can see the Lord's desire for the Feast includes the solemn, public veneration of the Image of Divine Mercy by the Church, as well as personal acts of veneration and mercy. The great promise for the individual soul is that a devotional act of sacramental penance and Communion will obtain for that soul the plenitude of the divine mercy on the Feast.

*The Cardinal of Krakow, Cardinal Macharski, whose diocese is the center of the spread of the devotion and the sponsor of the Cause of Sr. Faustina, has written that we should use Lent as preparation for the Feast and confess even before Holy Week! So, it is clear that the confessional requirement does not have to be met on the Feast itself. That would be an impossible burden for the clergy if it did. The Communion requirement is easily met that day, however, since it is a day of obligation, being Sunday. We would only need confession again, if received earlier in Lenten or Easter Season, if we were in the state of mortal sin on the Feast.
