"Ask and you shall receive: seek and you shall find, knock and it shall be opened to you." Believe and act on Jesus' promise. Pray for wisdom to discern God's will. (Luke 11:1-13)

For educators and mentors, may they guide others to seek God's will, we pray.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY Aug 4 Eccl 1:2, 2:21-23 Col 3:1-5, 9-11 Lk 12:13-21

From the Desk of
Fr. Tony

JULY 28, 2019
17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples." He said to them, "When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread and forgive us our sins for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us, and do not subject us to the final test."

Many of us pray this prayer each day. We say it six times each time we pray the rosary. The "Our Father Prayer," allows us to be very thorough in our conversation with God. Some may say it is a wrote prayer, which is a simple memorized prayer. But this prayer asks for assistance, forgiveness, and guidance.

Later in today's gospel we see Jesus telling his disciples, "And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened." Jesus is telling his disciples to speak from their hearts. I believe there are certain prayers that act like guard rails. The Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be prayers keep us focused and in communion with God. When my mom was dying I could only make up so many prayers from my heart. But the rosary and divine mercy chaplet were good prayers to say when I ran out of words to say to God. There is a place for wrote prayers and prayers from our hearts. They both are important. God bless you all. Fr. Tony

You are expected to attend both the Fall & Winter sessions of High School Religious Education Groups or Grade School CCD Classes---plus weekend Saturday or Sunday Mass. This includes all players, coaches and their families. Attendance at these groups/classes will be monitored and reviewed. For each class missed (which is not an excused absence) you will be sitting out one game.—To play CYO sports, the following are the only excused absences from CCD: sickness, death in family, college visitation day, parish sponsored event, sport tournament games only with O-G athletes/fans involved, and work (up to 3 missed CCD classes due to work). After the third absence due to work, the player is not permitted to play in a game until he/she returns to CCD class. All other reasons are unexcused. Parents, if your child is sick, please call his/her teacher/leader before class. If necessary, the Parish Council will review attendance or unexcused absence issues on an individual basis. We kindly ask the cooperation of all concerned as we implement this church policy for the good of our parish.
