Many people need a healing touch. Open your heart to the possibility that God may choose you to be a healing touch as a priest, sister or brother. (Mark 5:21-43)

For vocations to consecrated life and priesthood that they may continue the healing ministry of Jesus, we pray.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY JULY 4th Ez 2:2-5 2Cor 12:7-10 Mk 6:1-6

From the Desk of
Fr. Tony

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today we see Jesus healing a woman with hemorrhages and bringing a little girl back to life. Jesus can work miracles. You and I have to expect miracles from Christ. We just have to believe and trust in Jesus. Doubting is a part of human nature but it should not be a part of our entire thought process. We have to be comfortable with Christ being in charge. This means Christ leading us, speaking to us, and inspiring us. This little girl and woman ran out of options. Their hard work ethic, their money, and the doctors of Jesus' time could not heal them. So now what? Where should they turn? We turn to the world for answers and at times the world provides for our needs. But there are times when the world cannot help you. We should always turn to the Lord in prayer first then to the doctors after that. But prayer is always an option for you and me. For nothing is impossible for God.

When you and I ask Jesus for a miracle, make sure you thank him after you asked. Some may only want to thank God if they get what they want in prayer. Have confidence in God and thank him after you asked him. This shows faith and assurance on your part. If God does not give you what you asked for then keep asking. Don't give up on asking God. Sometimes God has some things to show us before our prayer is answered. This will in turn make us appreciate our prayerful requests. God bless you all. Keep your eyes on the prize, heaven, and hold on. God bless you all. Fr. Tony
