READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY, APRIL 4 Acts 10:34, 37-43 Col 3:1-4 Jn 20:1-9

SUNDAY, MARCH 28
Palm Sunday of the Passion of our Lord

From the Desk of
Fr. Tony

Today we see the rise and fall of Christ. He is very much welcomed into Jerusalem for the Passover but is then ridiculed and despised by many in this city. The hearts of men are weak and unpredictable. Jesus knows humanity is weak and he knows that the world needs a savior but this saving of humanity has a price and the price will lead to Calvary. Spring has begun but you and I must deal with Christ's passion first. There is a sense of new beginning with the robins singing and the sun becoming brighter but this coming week will deal with our inner souls. This week, holy week, will be an adventure with Christ. During this week, many of you watch the movie, "The Passion," directed by Mel Gibson. It is a harsh movie to see but portrays the true suffering of Christ. Mel Gibson is now working on a new movie called, "The Resurrection." It will be out soon. This week will be difficult because you and I may experience our inner soul's suffering with Christ but there will be a resurrection. Suffering does not last forever.

Many of us have experienced a whole year of lent with covid 19 and other infirmities and cancelations. This past year has tested our resolve. But the one thing I learned was, "Jesus I trust in You." We just have to hold onto Christ tighter when our world is collapsing around us. If we stick by Christ as Mary, John, and Mary Magdalen did, we will be alright. Spend this week with an abnormal amount of prayer. This is the week you draw close to Christ. It is called Holy Week because you are supposed to enter into the holy. You may have to work 50 hours this week but you can pray going to work, at work, and at home. Pretend you are one of the people in the crowd following Christ to the cross this week. Jesus wants to see if you will stick with him in his suffering. The cross always leads to resurrection. God bless you all. Fr. Tony
