READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY Nov 17 Mal 3:19-20 2Thes 3:7-12 Lk 21:5-19

From the Desk of
Fr. Tony

NOVEMBER 10, 2019
32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

We see in today's first reading from Maccabees, "It happened that seven brothers with their mother were arrested and tortured with whips and scourges by the king, to force them to eat pork in violation of God's law. One of the brothers, speaking for the others, said: "What do you expect to achieve by questioning us?

We are ready to die rather than transgress the laws of our ancestors." It is not a hardship for you and I to eat porkchops, ribs, and ham sandwiches. But for the Hebrew faith, this is a violation. Eating pork was and still is a violation of Jewish tradition, because pigs do not chew the cud.

These seven brothers and mother had a deep-seated faith. We may disagree with their beliefs but you have to admit that they practiced what they preached. Some of us may say there are many different religions so what should I believe. I tell you to believe in Jesus. He tells us, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." Jesus tells us in the gospel that he is God of the living. Who should you die for? Die for Jesus. Many people give their total selves for a football game. Look at a head football coach. Look at all the hours and sacrifice he exhibits in order to gain the loyalty of his football coaching staff and players. Does not Jesus demand even greater loyalty? Are you willing to die for the gospel? God bless you all. Fr. Tony
